JUDGMENT

Petitioners are aggrieved by Ext.P10 order, by which all the appointments to the post of attenders and peons are stayed by the respondent. The specific case put forward by the petitioners is that as per Ext.P5 order the bank was classified as Class I under rule 188 of the Kerala Co-operative Societies Rules, 1969 and hence, the petitioners are entitled to adopt staff pattern in Appendix III to the rule.

2. In the facts and circumstances of the case, the writ petition is disposed of clarifying that if the petitioners want to fill up the vacancies, which are available to a Class-I society, prior approval of the Registrar of Co-operative Societies is not required.
